

Robert Bertrand

Robert Bertrand was born July 27, 1938. Influenced by his many relatives he started playing Cajun music at a very early age. He lived around the Lake Charles area all his life. He played Cajun music with just about all Cajun bands in the area for 12 years of his life.

He formed his own band called “Robert Bertrand and the Louisiana Ramblers.” Robert wrote many Cajun songs and was one of the few Cajun musicians who has recorded over 50 Cajun songs.

He died on February 9, 1974, but his recorded music still goes on and Cajun bands still play his music to this day.
